Transcript:

Agent: Hi Carlton Boleyjack, this is Sarah calling on behalf of Excellence in Motion here in Nashville. How are you doing today?

Customer: I'm doing awesome. How are you?

Agent: I'm glad to hear that. I'm doing well, thank you. I'm reaching out as we approach the end of the year to share a quick update and invite our supporters to help us continue empowering young people through arts and science education.

Customer: Okay.

Agent: Excellence in Motion has been serving the Nashville community for over eight years, supporting youth through creative and STEAM-based programs that help build confidence, skills, and a strong foundation for the future. Every contribution helps provide meaningful learning opportunities and resources that allow students to discover their potential. As part of our year-end giving, we're asking supporters to consider making a tax-deductible donation before January one. Even a gift of twenty-five, fifty, or one hundred dollars helps us reach more youth and expand our impact in the community. Would you be able to contribute?

Customer: Maybe. Maybe?

Agent: I completely understand, there's absolutely no pressure. If it's helpful, you can learn more about our programs and impact at excellenceinmotion.org. I'd also be happy to send you a quick reminder link if that works for you.

Customer: Okay

Agent: Would you like me to send you a reminder link, Carlton Boleyjack?

Customer: sure.

Agent: Great. What is the best way to send that to you, by text or email?

Customer: Text

Agent: And what is your phone number, please?

Customer: , phone number on file.

Agent: Thank you. I'll send that reminder link to the phone number we have on file for you. Thank you again for your time, Carlton Boleyjack. On behalf of everyone at Excellence in Motion, we're grateful for your support and wish you a great rest of your day.
