Summary: Sarah from Excellence in Motion called Barbara T Young to request a year-end, tax-deductible donation to support youth programs in arts and science. The call ended due to no response from the recipient.

Transcript:

Agent: Hi Barbara T Young, this is Sarah calling on behalf of Excellence in Motion here in Nashville. How are you doing today?

Customer: ...

Agent: I'm glad to hear that. I'll keep this short and respectful of your time. We're reaching out as we approach the end of the year to share a quick update and invite our supporters to help us continue empowering young people through arts and science education. Excellence in Motion has been serving the Nashville community for over eight years, supporting youth through creative and STEAM-based programs that help build confidence, skills, and a strong foundation for the future. Every contribution helps provide meaningful learning opportunities and resources that allow students to discover their potential.

As part of our year-end giving, we're asking supporters to consider making a tax-deductible donation before January first. Even a gift of twenty-five, fifty, or one hundred dollars helps us reach more youth and expand our impact in the community. Would you be able to contribute?

Customer: ...

Agent: I appreciate your time, but I should let you go. Have a great day!
